

Clear Channel boasts ownership of more than 1200 stations across the country. They do not tell you what they are. Sinclair's behavior during the campaign is despicable. I listen to local radio stations. The most uninformed people I know patronize Fox, Sinclair and Clear Channel. The public owns the airwaves, not corporations. I remember well studying for my First Class Radiotelephone licence with the understanding that I was to protect the public broadcast spectrum. When is the FCC going to reinstate that policy for the last 50 years?
